The diagram shows a rectangular book cover with rounded corners. A vertical slot is cut into the center of the cover, extending from the top edge to about halfway down. The slot is defined by two parallel vertical lines. The text 'Parte B' is centered below the slot, and 'cara' is centered below that. The entire cover is framed by a thin blue border, and the slot is outlined in red.

The image shows a light gray rectangular area representing a book cover. A vertical slot is cut out from the top center, extending downwards. The slot is defined by two parallel lines, with the inner line being pink and the outer line being blue. Below the slot, the text 'Parte B' is written in a large, bold, olive-green font. Underneath 'Parte B', the word 'retira' is written in a smaller, bold, olive-green font. The entire content is framed by a thin blue border, which is itself inside a slightly larger pink border, all within a light gray background.
